LYNCHING IS FEARED.

The Journal of Louisville, Ky., Dec. 30—A report received here this afternoon from J. W. Moore, telegraph operator at Mount Pleasant, says that a man was lynched here last night. The report says that many shots were fired, and that it is feared that it is a case of lynching. The man was shot in the back and is believed to be dead. The body was not found, but it is believed that it will be recovered in the next few days.

TRANSFER MADE.

Spanish Flag Raised in Mexico.

The New York Herald, Thursday, January 1, 1891.

Mexico, Dec. 31.—The Spanish flag was raised at a lighthouse on the coast of Texas last night. The Mexican government has declared that the flag will be kept up as a symbol of peace between the two nations.

STATE NEWS ITEMS.

A BUSINESS EDUCATION.

Bryant & Stratton Business College, Louisville, Ky.

BOOKKEEPING, STENOGRAPHY, TELEGRAPHY.

Write for beautiful book giving instructions for managing your business.

First National Bank

Of Stanford, Ky.

Capital Stock $200,000. Surplus $23,100.

DIRECTORS—

The First National Bank of Stanford is one of the oldest and most respected institutions in Kentucky. It is situated on Main Street, opposite the courthouse, and is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

THE FARMERS' BANK and TRUST COMPANY,

STANFORD, KY.

Mechanists to the Farmers.

By provision of its charter, mechanics are as fully protected as in any other community in the state, and we are able to state that the present condition of the bank is such that it is able to issue any amount of notes that may be wanted. We are ready to meet all demands in a prompt and satisfactory manner.

Conditions of the Farmers Bank and Trust Co., Stanford, Kentucky. December 31, 1890.

By J. H. Hecker, President. W. A. Tinkle, Secretary.

We welcome the opportunity to serve all business men in the community.

J. H. Hecker, President.

A BUDGET FOR 1891.

In this year, the Farmers' Bank and Trust Company will continue to be the mechanical bank of the community. It is in a position to meet all demands in a prompt and satisfactory manner.

J. H. Hecker, President.

J. H. Hecker, Secretary.

We are ready to meet all demands in a prompt and satisfactory manner.

J. H. Hecker, President.

J. H. Hecker, Secretary.

We welcome the opportunity to serve all business men in the community.

J. H. Hecker, President.

J. H. Hecker, Secretary.