Gov. Nunn Speaks To 1200

At Republican Rally & Fish Fry

It was a warm, sunny evening, the beginning of campaigning was not far away, and it was a typical small-town Republican Rally. The crowd had gathered at Boyle County, in the heart of Kentucky. The weather was perfect, with temperatures in the high 70s, and the sun was shining brightly. The campaign signs were everywhere, with the words "Nunn for Governor" emblazoned on them.

Mr. Van Buren Tomato Team 136 was awarded a blue ribbon at the Blue Grass State Fair Vegetable Competition. This year, the fair was held at the Kentucky State Fairgrounds in Louisville. The fair was attended by hundreds of people, including the Governor.

MISS HARRY WILLIAMS

Wife of Harry Williams, Ed. of Clay County, and mother of Rocky Cottrell, died October 9th at the Letcher Memorial Hospital in Whitesburg. She was the daughter of Mrs. Louie Faye Williams of Orleans and the late, William Williams, member of the Baptist Church.

Besides her mother, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Sally Jones and Mrs. Frances Jordan, both of Miami, Ohio; Mrs. Georgia (Betty) Williams of Lexington, and Mrs. Hilda Masters of Louisville, and relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Wednesday of the week in the Baptist Church, with Rev. Leon Arnold aloud from Rev. Arnold. Burial was at the Flat Rock Cemetery.

Miss Coffey, a 1969 graduate of Bourbon County, was a member of the American Dairy Association. She was a member of the Kentucky Medical Center Christian Church in Covington, and a member of the Kentucky Medical Center Christian Church in Covington.

RICHARD H. GENTRY

DIES IN OHIO

Richard H. Gentry, 67, of Springfield, Ohio, formerly of Rockcastle County, died October 12th at the Ohio Medical Center in Columbus, Ohio. He was born July 17, 1927, in Rockcastle County, the son of the late David H. and Nona Brown Gentry. He was a member of the Church of Christ and had attended the church regularly.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Melba M. Gentry of Springfield, Ohio; four daughters, Mrs. Linda Thomas of Springfield, Ohio; Mrs. Nancy Halcomb of Orlando, and Mrs. Sally Brown of Springdale, Ohio; four sons, James E. Taylor of Lexington, Kentucky; Mrs. Sally Brown and Mrs. Nancy Halcomb, both of Orlando, and several grandchildren.

The Conference will bring together some of the leading scientists, medical and health professionals, representatives of agriculture and the food industry, and other participants.

OVER 1100 SCOUTS and adult leaders formed the opening parade at the annual Kentucky State Scout Jamboree.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves Named

To WH Conference Panel

Mr. and Mrs. Graves, residents of Rockcastle County, have been named to a panel for the upcoming WH Conference on Food, Nutrition, and Health in the United States.

Mr. Graves, a resident of Springfield, is a member of the Ohio Medical Center in Columbus, Ohio. He was born July 17, 1927, in Rockcastle County, the son of the late David H. and Nona Brown Gentry. He was a member of the Church of Christ and had attended the church regularly.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Melba M. Gentry of Springfield, Ohio; four daughters, Mrs. Linda Thomas of Springfield, Ohio; Mrs. Nancy Halcomb of Orlando, and Mrs. Sally Brown of Springdale, Ohio; four sons, James E. Taylor of Lexington, Kentucky; Mrs. Sally Brown and Mrs. Nancy Halcomb, both of Orlando, and several grandchildren.

The Conference will bring together some of the leading scientists, medical and health professionals, representatives of agriculture and the food industry, and other participants.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves, who have invested 4c a hundred in the American Dairy Association, are a member of the Christian Church in Covington. They are a member of the Kentucky Medical Center Christian Church in Covington.

The Conference will bring together some of the leading scientists, medical and health professionals, representatives of agriculture and the food industry, and other participants.

The Conference will bring together some of the leading scientists, medical and health professionals, representatives of agriculture and the food industry, and other participants.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves, who have invested 4c a hundred in the American Dairy Association, are a member of the Christian Church in Covington. They are a member of the Kentucky Medical Center Christian Church in Covington.

The Conference will bring together some of the leading scientists, medical and health professionals, representatives of agriculture and the food industry, and other participants.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves, who have invested 4c a hundred in the American Dairy Association, are a member of the Christian Church in Covington. They are a member of the Kentucky Medical Center Christian Church in Covington.