Jimmy Carter Wins Presidential Race; County Goes With Ford, Carter & Cooper

As expected, Rockcastle County voters cast their ballots for Jimmy Carter, who received 2,751 votes to Ford's 2,080, a margin of 671 votes. Carter carried the state with 55% of the vote, while Carter and Ford received 39% and 37% respectively.

School Board Meets

The Rockcastle County Board of Education met Monday night with several agenda items on the docket.

Cummings Gets Favorable Supreme Court Ruling

A recent decision, regarding a Rockcastle County, Paul Cummings, has been decided by the Supreme Court of the United States. In a decision handed down Tuesday, the Court ruled 4 to 4 with one opinion that causes the division in the case to revert to a lower court.

Improvement Council Members Meet With Reps. of Department of Commerce

Several members of the Rockcastle Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce met on Tuesday to discuss potential projects and initiatives.

The two objectives of the visit were to discuss the availability of the Ky. Industrial Development Authority and the $1 million rate increase by the Kentucky Telephone will allow the county to improve the site and accommodate industry.

"The best invest in the county," he said, "is to accommodate industry and other aspects." At a recent meeting of the Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce were formed to develop plans to present to the County Fiscal Court for the possible acquisition of funds or the lease of this land to the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce. The meeting was held Thursday, November 11.

The Council also decided to present an Improvement Council and representatives to the community and to request additional funds for the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce.

The meeting was chaired by Mrs. Susie Cummings, who expressed the need for additional funds to continue the work of the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce.

School Board Meets

The Rockcastle County Board of Education met Monday night with several agenda items on the docket.

Cummings Gets Favorable Supreme Court Ruling

A recent decision, regarding a Rockcastle County, Paul Cummings, has been decided by the Supreme Court of the United States. In a decision handed down Tuesday, the Court ruled 4 to 4 with one opinion that causes the division in the case to revert to a lower court.

Improvement Council Members Meet With Reps. of Department of Commerce

Several members of the Rockcastle Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce met on Tuesday to discuss potential projects and initiatives.

The two objectives of the visit were to discuss the availability of the Ky. Industrial Development Authority and the $1 million rate increase by the Kentucky Telephone will allow the county to improve the site and accommodate industry.

"The best invest in the county," he said, "is to accommodate industry and other aspects." At a recent meeting of the Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce were formed to develop plans to present to the County Fiscal Court for the possible acquisition of funds or the lease of this land to the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce. The meeting was held Thursday, November 11.

The Council also decided to present an Improvement Council and representatives to the community and to request additional funds for the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce.

The meeting was chaired by Mrs. Susie Cummings, who expressed the need for additional funds to continue the work of the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce.

School Board Meets

The Rockcastle County Board of Education met Monday night with several agenda items on the docket.

Cummings Gets Favorable Supreme Court Ruling

A recent decision, regarding a Rockcastle County, Paul Cummings, has been decided by the Supreme Court of the United States. In a decision handed down Tuesday, the Court ruled 4 to 4 with one opinion that causes the division in the case to revert to a lower court.

Improvement Council Members Meet With Reps. of Department of Commerce

Several members of the Rockcastle Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce met on Tuesday to discuss potential projects and initiatives.

The two objectives of the visit were to discuss the availability of the Ky. Industrial Development Authority and the $1 million rate increase by the Kentucky Telephone will allow the county to improve the site and accommodate industry.

"The best invest in the county," he said, "is to accommodate industry and other aspects." At a recent meeting of the Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce were formed to develop plans to present to the County Fiscal Court for the possible acquisition of funds or the lease of this land to the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce. The meeting was held Thursday, November 11.

The Council also decided to present an Improvement Council and representatives to the community and to request additional funds for the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce.

The meeting was chaired by Mrs. Susie Cummings, who expressed the need for additional funds to continue the work of the Rockcastle County Improvement Council and representatives of the Department of Commerce.