Lots of my news I make two copies and it is so easy to pick up the original instead of the one I've corrected as I did in the article under the picture of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Newland, Sr. last week. The right copy was that Mr. Newland was formerly of Lincoln County and Mrs. Newland is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wallin and granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. S.C. Davis of Mt. Vernon. The same thing happened in the article of our dear brother's death, Mr. Charlie L. Davis, who passed away in May. The corrected copy stated that he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Davis and grandson of Dr. and Mrs. S.C. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Rickels. This copy was left on the writing table and the wrong one went to press.

A poem copied from "Our Daily Bread" devotion book entitled "I'm Sorry, I Was Wrong"

There may be virtue in the man
Who's always sure he's right
Who'll never hear another's plan
And seeks no further light;

But I like more the chap who sings
A somewhat different song,
That he has lost the fight or way,
Because his light burned dim.

It's hard for anyone to say
That failure's due to him,
That he has lost the fight or way,
Because his light burned dim.

It takes a man to cast aside
The vanity that's strong,
Confessing, "I was my fault, I lied,
I'm sorry, I was wrong."

And so I figure those who say
This honest, manly phrase
Hate it too much to lose their way
On many future days.

They'll keep the path and win the fight,
Because they do not long
To have to say when they're not right,
I'm sorry, I was wrong.
