On Friday, April 3, the F.F.A. Chapter from Rockcastle County High School attended the regional F.F.A. day in Richmond.

The chapter was very successful in the activities that they participated in. In speaking contests, they had two first places and two second places. The first place speakers were Grant Martin and Tim Burdette in Dairy, Impromptu and Horticulture. Impromptu in production contests, they had three first places and three second places. The first places were: Becky Parsons in Hay Production; Chris Craig in Crop Production; and Carol Sigmon in Swine Production.

Rockcastle County also won the Chapter Meeting team contest. This, according to the chapter, is the most sought after award. The team, consisting of Scott Adams, Anthony Lewis, Chris Craig, Jeff Hayes, Carol Sigmon, Greg Brown, Mike Whitehead, Becky Parsons, Tim Burdette, Marty Harris and Tony Bullock, will compete in June at the State Convention for the state title.

The chapter entered a total of 22 contests, and received 17 superior ratings, 4 excellent ratings and one good rating.

Selected for honor

Seven local young women have been selected as Outstanding Young Women of America for 1986. Their complete biographies will appear in the annual awards publication, Outstanding Young Women of America.

Those receiving this award were: Lisa Shaffer of Livingston; Catrina C. Hasty of Broadhead; Jerri Lynn Nunneley Smith; Debbie Webb Bugg; Cloye Spencer Mills; Judith Ann Bullock of Mt. Vernon and Regina Russell Martin of Flatwoods.

The Outstanding Young Women of America program seeks to recognize the achievements and abilities of women between the ages of 21 and 36. These women are being honored for their outstanding civic and professional contributions to their communities, their state, as well as to their nation.
