Adams family reunion

The Quail Community Park was the location of the third Adams' Reunion, July 11th. I went early in order to park my car on the first level so I could leave at 1 p.m. I was glad I did because I met and had a chance to converse with a descendant of Absalom Adams, Loren J. Adams from Kansas.

Then came Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams from New Jersey. He brought a large duplicator and got to work immediately making copies of Loren J. Adams' information about the Adams' family. Jack Adams and Judy Adams Cash camera's clicked often taking pictures of individuals, groups and all the group together.

When Judy Cash first arrived she put cloths on the tables and told us where to place food and drinks. Mrs. Jack Adams and her daughter had cleaned the tables and benches earlier.

We were glad to have a roof over the tables, as we had a shower or two. It got cooler and ladies got jackets out of their cars. We ate at 12:30, filling our plates with delicious food. Then went back for a choice of desserts which were pies, cakes and cookies. The choice of drinks were numerous, bottled, canned and ice tea.

Rockcastle Adams' folk, you missed the best reunion that we've had. Plan to attend next year at Quail Community Park, Saturday, July 9, 1988.
