HOMEMAKERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

By: Elizabeth F. Mullins

"Hats Off to Homemakers" was the theme of the annual dinner meeting of Rockcastle's University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service. Homemakers Clubs, Sept. 10, at 6:30 p.m. The dinner was held at Renfro Valley's Seafood Restaurant. Not all of the 48 diners wore hats, but the hats that were worn brought out laughter as well as "How pretty!" Our county's president, Virginia Hansel, welcomed the homemakers. Then she asked Elizabeth F. Mullins to present the devotional and give the blessing before we ate our meal, which was nutritious as well as delicious. Debbie McQueen, our county's secretary, called the roll by having clubs stand when each name was called. Norettia Thompson introduced our speaker, Jerri Cockrel. She is a Program Specialist of Home Economics in our state.

Vernon and Mr. Mrs. Lester Bryant of Crab Orchard. Maternal great grandmother is Retha Murphy of Versailles. Paternal great grandparents are Hazel Bryant of Mt. Vernon, Henry Bryant of Brodhead and Corba Braley of Crab Orchard. Paternal great grandmother is Oma Reynolds of Brodhead.

She presented "Voices of America" by showing, on a large screen, what had been taped in various places in U.S.A. Women ranging from ages of 27 to 100 years of age were interviewed for this program. They told of their home and community life.

Cheryl Witt, our county's Cooperative Extension Service Agent, presented a special award to Pat Himes, her secretary. Pat answers many questions we ask, and prepares materials for all of Rockcastle Homemakers. She deserved a special award.

Perfect Attendance Awards were given to Alta Bullock from Rise and Shine Club; Emily Gllovak and Loraine Newland from Brodhead Willing Workers Club; Donna Roberts and Susanne Thomas from Town and Country Club; Tammy Hopkins, Virginia Hansel and Christine Taylor from Quail Club; and Debra McQueen from Sunshine Club.

Rise and Shine, Sunshine and Brodhead Willing Workers Clubs received 100 percent Club Awards!
