Ronnie and Carol Singleton of Louisville spent Saturday night in Berea and attended the Alumni Banquet and visited Pat Pruitt and I Sunday afternoon before returning to their home. We sure were glad to see them. I had a call from Gervis Singleton in London wanting me to come down as his son Allen and family from Georgia were there.

The Mamic Halcomb Family reunion was held Sunday near Renfro Valley. There were around fifty of the Halcomb generation present.

Henry was unable to be there. Mamic said they all enjoyed being together again and hope Henry's health will improve and he will get to come for a visit later.

They feel like family to me as Mamic and her daughters baby sat for me while I worked in our store. Also they were good customers in our store until it burned. We sure missed all the people who traded with us.
