Janet Wells named State Coordinator for Kentucky Bluegrass Award Program

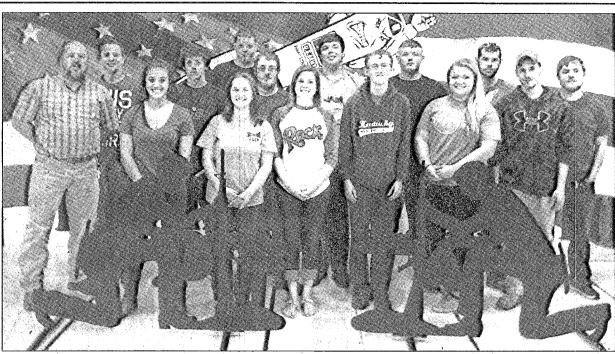

Janet Wells, Librarian at Rockcastle County High School, was recently appointed the State Coordinator of the Kentucky Bluegrass Award Program, the statewide children's choice awards program for authors and books. Kentucky Association of School Librarians

RCHS Librarian Janet Wells

(KASL) President James Allen made the appointment at KASL's March board meeting in Louisville.

Wells succeeds Dr. Jennifer Smith of Northern Kentucky University, who created and oversaw the KBA Program for 33 years. The original KBA award was presented in 1983 to author Chris Van Allsburg for Jumanji. In 1988, KBA was divided into two divisions, K-3 and 4-8. By 2001, the KBA program included K-2, 3-5, 6-8, and 9-12 grade divisions. A fifth division for Preschool students is in the process of being added to address all of Kentucky's young readers. As a student choice program, only young people (Continued on B5)

Rockcastle ATC Senior Welding Technology students recently completed a project for the community. The "kneeling soldier" silhouettes were cut from sheet steel with a plasma torch. They were then attached to mounts and painted. The silhouettes will be used in various Veteran's programs including "The Moving Wall" display coming to Rockcastle County August 18th- 22nd. "The Moving Wall" display is a half size replica of the Vietnam War Memorial that travels to numerous communities throughout the year to honor those who served. We appreciate local resident and veteran, Tommy Hodges for presenting us the opportunity to make a small contribution to this upcoming event.

Circuit Clerks celebrate surpassing national goal of registered donors

For more than a decade, the month of April has been about saving and healing lives. Donate Life champions across the country fill the month of April with power testimonials to demonstrate the lifesaving message of donation and transplantation. The goal of National Donate Life Month is to make life possible by educating and motivating individuals to register their decision to be organ, eye and tissue donors.

One of those champions is Rockcastle County Circuit Clerk Eliza Jane York. "This April is especially momentous because Kentucky has a very exciting announcement to make. I am honored to share that Kentucky has surpassed the national goal. Today, 50% of Kentuckians are registered donors! This is a point of pride four our Commonwealth and a symbol of hope for all those waiting for lifesaving transplants."

Since 2007, the Circuit Court Clerks and their deputies have asked every Kentuckian getting a driver's license or ID to join the Kentucky Organ Donor Registry. "It's a question we are required to ask, but knowing what a difference it makes to families, gives this question even greater meaning. Joining the confidential egistry is stating your willingness to save lives, if you can. Every person who says 'yes' gives hope and shows support for patients in need," York said.

The national artwork for 2016 National Donate Life Month is inspired by sunflowers, which is especially meaningful to one passionate Kentucky family. "Carissa was a beautiful young woman with a heart of gold. She was full of energy, a hard worker, loved to make people smile and could never do enough to help others," said Carissa's mom, Cathy Mattingly.

In 2009, Carissa and her two children, Rance and Elezerine. Cathy says Adie, died in a horrible au-"Elezerine is a firecracker, tomobile accident. In the just like Carissa was and worst moments of her life, just love her." Cathy recalled a conversation with Carissa. "She said to me, 'Mom, if you have something in this house, you don't need, you give it to Goodwill. Why wouldn't you give your organs to those who need it?' I knew that she wanted to save others." Carissa saved three lives that night. Cathy has met her daughter's kidney recipient, Matt. Matt travels the world and sends Cathy postcards showing where Carissa's gift has taken him.

thanks to her heart recipient,

Cathy's family has grown sunflowers in their garden in Meade County for years. A favorite of Carissa Rance and Adie's, Cathy loved that sunflowers were picked as this year's Donate Life Month artwork. The face of a sunflower contains as many as 2,000 seeds. One sunflower has the potential to create an entirely new field of flowers. Everyone has similar potential - to make life possible for many by registering as a donor.

Michigan man returns to hike Boone Trace again

Curtis Penix, from Michigan, has returned to hike the Kentucky portion of the original Boone Trace from Fort Boonesborough, near Winchester, Ky, through the Cumberland Gap to Martin's Station, located in Lee County, Virginia from April 2 through April 10.

He and Givan Fox had hiked the Trace from Kingsport, TN over 16 days in March 2015.

Penix's fifth-great grandfather, Joshua Penix, came with Daniel Boone along Boone Trace in 1779 and it has been Penix's wish to continue to walk in the steps of his great grandfather.

It has never been "hiked" north to south in modern times and this hike will be again somewhat of a research expedition. It can be followed on his web site www.lostinthewander.com

Rockcastle County celebrates Adult College Readiness Month

Kentucky Governor Matt Bevin has designated April 2016 as Kentucky Adult College Readiness Month. The designation of this month corresponds with the official April 1, 2016, launch of a partnership between Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA) and Kentucky Adult Education (KYAE), a unit of the Council on Postsecondary Educa-

Locally, Rockcastle County Adult Education is promoting adult college readiness and its partnership with KHEAA throughout the month of April 2016.

Rockcastle County Judge Executive Doug Bishop proclaimed the month of April Rockcastle County Adult College Readiness Month" during a signing ceremony on March 30th, 2016.

"By 2020, 63% of all jobs in Kentucky will require some level of postsecondary education, so it's important for our residents to consider taking that next educational step," says Jenny Sweet, Program Director Rockcastle County Adult Education. "Our program offers free instructional services to help adults prepare academically, along with free services that help adults do things like apply for financial aid. Together with our partners, we can help adults successfully transition or return to college or technical training."

To celebrate the recognition of April as Rockcastle County Adult College Readiness Month, Rockcastle County Adult Education will host a visit a College and Career Fair on Thursday, April 14th 10:00-2:00 at the Rockcastle Adult Education Center, located at 955 West Main Street next to the middle school.

Rockcastle County Adult Education offers free classes to help qualified individuals build their skills to earn a GED diploma, Kentucky Essential Skills Certificate or National Career Readiness Certificate and/or prepare for postsecondary training, college and career. KHEAA's mission is to expand educational opportunities by providing financial and informational resources that enable Kentuckians to attain their higher educational goals.

give sight to two people through cornea donation and heal countless others through tissue donation.

Since 1992, The Rockcastle Circuit Clerk's office has worked for this mission by collecting $1 for the Trust for Life's educational initiatives.

The number of people in need of transplants continues to outpace the number of organs donated. More than 121,000 people are waiting for a transplant and second chance at life. On average, 22 people die each day because the organ they need is not donated in time.

100% pass rate for SCC

If you're thinking about becoming a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN), why not choose the local program that has a 100 percent success rate?

Recently, the LPN program at Somerset Community College (SCC) was recognized by the Kentucky Board of Nursing for having 100 percent of graduating students pass the 2015 NCLEX test, the statemandated exam that allows LPNs to practice nursing.

"I am extremely proud of our faculty and our students," said Ruth Martin, program coordinator. "Our faculty is one of the most experienced and respected group of educators in their field and the way they prepare our students for their careers is unparalleled. Clearly, their dedication and knowledge shows when all four LPN programs have 100 percent of students pass the state exam, as well as have a 100 percent job placement rate."

SCC offers four different LPN programs, two at Somerset (one day and one evening program), one at the SCC Laurel Campus and one at the SCC Clinton Center. At least one of those programs admits students each semester, said Martin.

Most graduates from the SCC program work directly in patient care, said Martin. Employment is typically found in hospitals, home health agencies, physician offices, nursing homes and various other medical settings.

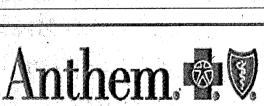

For more information, contact Martin at (606) 451-6813.
